Founded in 1973, Second Street Gallery is the oldest nonprofit (501(c)3) contemporary art space in Central Virginia.

INSIDE THE ARTIST'S STUDIO.

There's lots of different tools artists use to create- from pencils and pens to paint and clay. What are some of the tools you use to make art? Draw them below.

A large empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for drawing. The box is white and occupies the lower half of the page. It is a simple, clean design with a consistent blue border on all four sides.

Art Space.

Where is your favorite place to create art?
Draw or describe it below.

A large, empty rectangular area outlined in red, intended for drawing or describing the artist's favorite place to create art.

What inspires you?

Creating art isn't just about the finished painting or sculpture. There is a lot that goes into making a finished piece- some of which happens totally off the page, like coming up with an idea or theme. What inspires you to create? Where do you get your ideas from? List them below.
