

Patience
Jess Walters

Ligaments make mountains
and we're brought to our knees
along this journey
together.

(like riding a bike)
we do not forget how to find the way
(wet from the stuff)
under the surface
of the Primordial Soup.

We swim.
We swim and we strip away
what's unwanted.

Tadpoles become full-bodied sharks.